

Facial Massage

Pitch 1: morning

Therapist: Angie Clayton

Angie is a Holistic Therapist, she has qualifications in Facials, Crystal Reiki, Indian Head Massage, and different massage techniques.

Angie will be providing Aloe Vera mini facial treatments, Aloe Vera is an excellent product for the skin inside and out giving great results to tired or stressed skin. The treatments are non-invasive and clients remain fully clothed throughout. The therapy takes place in comfortable relaxed surroundings and lasts approximate 15 minutes. Face massage is very effective at reducing stress and raising physical and mental well-being. Tension in the scalp and facial muscles can cause headaches and 'worry lines'. Face massage can loosen tight muscles, increase circulation and improve the skin. They are also a great way of keeping your skin in tip top condition, leaving you feeling pampered, refreshed and re-energised, ready to get on with your day ahead.
